

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

RONALD DALE SANDERS,

Defendant.

Case No. 23-CR-354-JFH

OPINION AND ORDER

Before the Court is a joint motion to extend scheduling order deadlines (“Motion”) filed by the United States of America (“Government”) and Defendant Ronald Dale Sanders (“Defendant”). Dkt. No. 23. For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

The Motion falls under § 3161(h)(7)(A) of the Speedy Trial Act. This section permits a federal district court to exclude any period of delay resulting from a continuance if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). A court must orally or in writing set forth its reasons for granting an ends of justice continuance and make findings that a continuance is in the best interest of the defendant and the public. Id. The statute permits a court to consider whether “the failure to grant such a continuance ... would deny counsel for the defendant ... the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.” Id. at § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Tenth Circuit has been clear that an ends of justice continuance should not be granted “cavalierly” and it was intended to be a “rarely used tool.” United States v. Williams, 511 F.3d 1044, 1048-49 (10th Cir. 2007).

In United States v. Toombs, 574 F.3d 1262 (10th Cir. 2009), the Tenth Circuit limited the circumstances in which an ends of justice continuance can be granted and emphasized that this should be a rarely used procedural tool. The parties must provide the district court a sufficient record to determine why the facts stated in a motion for continuance “result[] in the need for additional time.” Id. at 1271. This requires the parties to provide specific information about the need for a continuance, and the district court may need to hold a hearing before granting an ends of justice continuance. Id. at 1272-73. A district court must also give significant weight to the public’s interest in a speedy trial, and the public’s interest is generally served by strict adherence to the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act. Id. at 1273.

The parties request additional time because of ongoing discovery and trial preparation. Dkt. No. 23. The parties’ recent joint status report on discovery states that outstanding discovery as of November 16, 2023, included cell phone extractions, a SANE exam report and photographs, a 911 call, FBI reports and serials, and forensic interviews of minor witnesses. Dkt. No. 22 at 2. The Motion adds additional details, such as that the cell phone extractions include over 32,000 text messages between the alleged minor victim and Defendant as well as material that cannot be distributed and must be viewed at the FBI office in Tulsa, and that lab testing is also pending. Dkt. No. 23 at 2. Defense counsel is located in Arizona, so travel must be arranged for him to view this discovery and meet with his client. Id. Further, the Motion indicates that a superseding indictment is anticipated based on evidence discovered during a search of Defendant’s phone. Id. The Court finds Defendant has executed a speedy trial waiver, asking the Court to exclude any period of delay for an ends of justice continuance. Dkt. No. 24. In addition to considering Defendant’s interests, the Court has considered the public’s interest in the speedy resolution of criminal cases and finds that a limited ends of justice continuance will not subvert the public's interest in the prompt prosecution of criminal matters.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the joint motion to extend scheduling order deadlines filed at Dkt. No. 23 is GRANTED. The jury trial set for January 8, 2024 at 8:45 a.m. is stricken.
